Supporting the Food Bank

With the increasing cost of groceries, more people need support from our local Food Bank. If you are able, we encourage people to donate to the Food Bank, by giving non-perishable foods and/or financial donations. The Food Bank uses the money to purchase large volumes of food as well as perishable items such as milk.

For information on the many ways to donate, go to - <https://www.reginafoodbank.ca/how-to-help>

If you wish to donate food directly, you can drop off items in the large barrel, now located in the narthex, near the door to Massey Road. Remember, only NON-PERISHABLE items, and no expired items. Check the Food Bank website for the most needed items.

February Spotlight – Ian Bailey

For February we are pleased to shine our spotlight on Ian Bailey. At Immanuel Ian helps out in many ways. He is a sides-person (greeting, passing collection plate, helping parishioners line up for communion); he takes turns in the kitchen doing coffee for fellowship; he helps count the collection once a month; he changes the messages on the sign on the lawn, and in the summer helps with outdoor maintenance and lawn mowing etc.
